Post Classifier Assessment:

Discuss the case with ex. Jeff Piziali. In the parent case, there were a restriction (class 345 w. cl. 709). Applicant elected group 1 for class 345, and then a divisional case (10-091922) was filed prob. for the non-elected group (cl. 709). The invention as disclosed, is not directed to a method for creating and displaying a note in freehand on screen, but a method for transmitting the information including "the note in freehand" to Internet service provider (ISP), and to system director server (SDS), then

Section III. DISPOSITION BY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PANEL to a recipient - Date

Panel Decision:

REASON:

This is different from the invention in the parent which is directed to method for creating note in freehand on screen. Because of the above, it is appropriate that this application is classified in 709/238.
